In the southern part of Kitalu village there are many mountains. Tourists all over the world come to climb these mountains and enjoy the natural habitat there. On one of the mountains there is a talking stone. This stone can answer your questions for example "where do you come from?" "What is your name?" "Where are you going?" One summer, Jumila and his friends climbed the mountain to prove if the talking stone really existed. As they were climbing the mountain, they heard a voice welcoming them, "welcome" "welcome". "Who is talking?" asked Jumila. The talking stone replied, "I am the wonderful talking stone in this mountain, no one can reach the peak without talking to me." Jumila asked, "How can we reach the top of the mountain?" the talking stone replied, "You must go back, then come with three cocks then I will guide you on how to reach the top of the mountain." Jumila and his friends went back. From that day, they knew that the talking stone really exists.
